All Of You Undisturbed Cities
from "Five Poems of Rainer Maria Rilke"

Music by Mark Abel

Music prepared by Jeremy Borum www.jeremyborum.com

Copyright © 2012 Oceangoing Music (ASCAP)
All Of You Undisturbed Cities

cities,

have-n't you e-ver longed__

for the enemy

I'd like to see you

be-sieged

by him

for ten__

end-less and
All Of You Undisturbed Cities

ground shak-ing years

Un-til you were des-per-ate and mad with suf-fer-ing

A little faster

fin-ally in hun-ger you would feel his weight molto rit.

$\sum \frac{n}{q} = 86$
All Of You Undisturbed Cities

with disquiet

He lies out side the walls like a

with intensity

country side

And he knows very well

how to endure longer than the ones he comes

PERUSAL SCORE -- DO NOT PRINT
All Of You Undisturbed Cities

Suddenly slow

to visit

quietly, with mystery Climb up on your roofs and look out his camp is there, and his morale doesn't accel.

falter and his numbers do not decrease;

\[ \sum_{n=0}^{\infty} q^{n} = \frac{1}{1-q} \] he will not grow weaker. And he sends no one into the

70

All Of You Undisturbed Cities

he will not grow weak - er. And he sends no one in-to the

And

sends

74

no

city
to threaten or promise, and no one to nego-ti-ate

city
to threat - en or pro-pose,

78

Dramatically slow

j = 66

and

quietly

He is the one who breaks down the walls,

72

and

when

when

and

works

works

and

works

when

when

in

silence.

and

when

works

works

and

works

and

works

He is the one who breaks down the walls,

82

and

when

works

works

and

works

and

works

He is the one who breaks down the walls,